Dear Bill:

At our February 3, 1986 meeting of the National Drug Enforcement Policy Board, we discussed the conference report accompanying the FY 1986 Appropriation Act which requires the Department of Defense to configure one AC-130H-30 stretched variant gunship for drug interdiction surveillance.

Attached is a draft of identical letters I intend to send to the Chairmen of both Appropriations and Armed Services Committees. I would appreciate it if you would have your staff phone the Board's Staff Director, Patrick H. Tarr (633-3435) with your comments by 5:00 p.m. February 6, 1986.

Sincerely,

Edwin Meese III
